MARRAKECH, A COVERED STREET

LL6491

"WIDE WIDE WORLD" Series. MOROCCO.

Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE" [Regd.] Postcard 7427.

A. PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN.

TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

A Covered Street. Marrakesh, the southern capital of the Empire of Morocco, is a city of about five miles in circumference and 60,000 inhabitants. The merchants' quarter or "Kaiseria" is a partially covered area from which a considerable local trade is carried on.

(For Address Only.)

Printed in England.

CTPA12.9